ADVICE AND CONSULT AGREEMENT PROJECT HOMELESS CONNECT

February 8, 2013

This explains our Agreement for the free consultation we will have today at Project Homeless Connect. We will provide you a free legal consultation, approximately 30 minutes in length, for the issues you write below. We will do everything we can to help you by providing you advice in this consultation. Our ability to provide help is limited to what we can do today during our consultation at Project Homeless Connect, so we will not be able to represent you in court or be “your attorney” after the consultation. At the end of our appointment neither the Clallam County Pro Bono Lawyers nor the attorney providing you advice will have any obligation to provide you any further legal help.

If you need any further legal help after our consultation, you may contact Clallam County Pro Bono Lawyers, or the NW Justice Project, or another private attorney, and we can tell you how to get in touch with these people.

Everything we talk about today will be confidential and protected by the attorney-client privilege. In our discussion, it is important to only discuss facts and issues related to the topic you write out below, both for confidentiality and time purposes. Please ask us if you have any questions about this, or anything in this Agreement.
