Notice of Judicial Vacancy Clallam County Superior Court

On November 28, 2018, Hon. Erik Rohrer announced his resignation from the bench effective January 14, 2019. Governor Jay Inslee is now seeking interested and qualified members of the Washington State Bar Association to submit applications to fill this position. The Governor's application for judicial appointment, the Uniform Judicial Evaluation Questionnaire, is accepted by the Clallam County Bar Association and several minority bar associations for evaluation purposes. It can be downloaded at: <http://www.governor.wa.gov/office-governor/official-actions/judicial-appointments-0>

To be considered for this vacancy, applicants are strongly encouraged to promptly submit complete applications, along with a short resume and the Waiver and Authorization to Release Information, and schedule judicial evaluations with the county bar association and the statewide minority bar associations. All applications must be completed and submitted to the Governor's Office by December 14, 2018, with all judicial evaluation ratings submitted to the Governor's Office of General Counsel as soon as possible. If you have submitted an application to the General Counsel within the last six months, you do not need to submit a new application; your application will be reconsidered for this vacancy. A letter of interest and supplemental materials will be accepted. Completed applications should be mailed to the address below:
